3. COURSE DETAILS

Course Name	Methods for Teaching Students with High Incidence Disabilities
Credit Points	6 units of credit (uoc)
Workload	Includes 150 hours including class contact hours, readings, class preparation, assessment, follow up activities, etc. You should allow 4 hours to complete each module and its associated activities. Additional time will be required to complete the reading and assessment tasks.
Schedule	This is a fully online course
Lecture	6 Modules completed over the Summer semester

Summary of Course

There is an increasing number of students with high-incidence disabilities in mainstream classrooms today. The diversity of these students' needs presents a number of challenges to both students and their teachers. You will engage with current knowledge about cognitive, perceptual, language, academic learning, and social-emotional characteristics of these students. You will also learn about issues arising in assessment, curriculum and instruction, as well as the use of evidence-based practices in an inclusive setting. You will become acquainted with instructional strategies and interventions, with focus on developing literacy and numeracy skills.

The main ways in which the course has changed since last time as a result of student feedback:

The first assessment task has now been set in two parts.

Important Information

Assessment: You must pass ALL assignments in order to pass the course. Only by passing all assignments can the Graduate Attributes be achieved.

Engagement: You are expected to give priority to your university study commitments and engage with the content on the course's website. Failure to complete at least 80% of the learning activities may result in a fail for this course.

Student Learning Outcomes

Outcome		Assessment/s
1	Critically engage with seminal issues in education for students with high-incidence disabilities.	1
2	Apply legislation and policy related to the education of students with high-incidence disabilities.	1, 2
3	Demonstrate an understanding of research-based strategies for individual curriculum-based assessment, planning, and instruction.	1, 2
4	Conduct independent research into a current topic/issue relevant to learners with learning disabilities, intellectual disabilities, ADHD, or emotional disabilities.	2

Program Learning Outcomes

Standard		Assessment/s
1	Advanced disciplinary knowledge and practices Demonstrate an advanced understanding of the field of education as it relates to their specialist area of study, and the ability to synthesize and apply disciplinary principles and practices to new or complex environments.	1, 2
2	Research-based learning Demonstrate an in-depth understanding of research-based learning and the ability to plan, analyse, present implement and evaluate complex activities that contribute to advanced professional practice and/or intellectual scholarship in education.	1, 2
3	Cognitive skills and critical thinking Demonstrate advanced critical thinking and problem solving skills	1, 2
4	Communication, adaptive and interactional skills Communicate effectively to a range of audiences, and be capable of independent and collaborative enquiry and team-based leadership	1, 2
5	International outlook Demonstrate an understanding of international perspectives relevant to the educational field	1
6	Ethical and responsible professional practice Demonstrate an advanced capacity to recognise and negotiate the complex and often contested values and ethical practices that underlie education	1, 2

AITSL Professional Teaching Standards (Proficient, Highly Accomplished, Lead)

1.6.2	1, 2
2.5.2	2
3.3.4	2

4. RATIONALE FOR THE INCLUSION OF CONTENT AND TEACHING APPROACH

The Disability Standards for Education 2005 (DEST, 2005) provide a framework to ensure that students with disability are able to access and participate in education on the same basis as other students. Today's classrooms are increasingly diverse, thus teachers must have the practical knowledge to be able to design instruction that meets the needs of all of the learners in their classrooms.

5. TEACHING STRATEGIES

- Explicit teaching, including reading and/or listening to audio-visual materials to foster interest and support learning.
- Structured occasions for critical reflection on issues raised in the course and on others' ideas.
- Opportunities for peer and instructor interaction via forums, message boards, and chat, allowing you the opportunity to demonstrate your capacity to communicate, to question, and to problem solve.
- Completion of online modules and activities to permit flexible interaction with course materials.
- Use of quizzes at the end of each module/prescribed readings for students to self-assess their understanding of key concepts.

These activities will occur in a climate that is supportive and inclusive of all learners.

Students are required to follow their lecturer's instructions when submitting their work for assessment. All assessment will be submitted online via Moodle by 5pm. Students no longer need to use a cover sheet. Students are also required to keep all drafts, original data and other evidence of the authenticity of the work for at least one year after examination. If an assessment is mislaid the student is responsible for providing a further copy. Please see the Student Policies and Procedures for information regarding submission, extensions, special consideration, late penalties and hurdle requirements etc.

Assessment Details

Assessment 1, Part 1. Pre-course Assignment: Defining a Research Problem. 20%

Students are to submit a brief report of approximately 1000 words in length which includes the following:

- An issue relevant to learners with high incidence disabilities (choose from one of the following high incidence disabilities: ADHD, emotional disturbance, intellectual disabilities, specific learning disabilities)
- Explanation of the context of the issue, and the importance of addressing the issue that you have identified.

The report should be written in APA 6th edition style and contain at least 5 current (within the last 10 years, between 2010 and 2019) peer-reviewed journal articles.

This assignment will set the foundation for your assessment task 2 for this course.

Assessment 1, Part 2. Research Paper. 35%

Students are to submit a research paper of approximately 2000 words in length on an issue relevant to learners with high incidence disabilities (choose from one of the following high incidence disabilities: ADHD, emotional disturbance, intellectual disabilities, specific learning disabilities) and discuss how the issue may be addressed. You may wish to focus on the issue that you have identified in assessment 1.

The research paper should include the following:

- Title of your research paper
- Abstract
- Introduction
- Body
- Conclusion

The research paper should be written in APA 6th edition style, and contain at least 10 current (within the last 10 years, between 2010 and 2019) peer-reviewed journal articles.

Assessment 2: Short Essay. 45%

As you become more familiar with the types of disabilities and the needs of individual students and their families, you can continue to seek the resources you need to teach students with disabilities and work with other professionals to include the students in the general classroom. This short essay is designed to enable you to begin that process by reflecting on your knowledge thus far, and plan a course of action for your practice with students who have mild disabilities. This activity consists of three (3) parts.

Part 1: Instructional Issues: Choose two (2) of the disabilities discussed during the course (ADHD, emotional disturbance, intellectual disabilities, specific learning disabilities).

For both of the disability categories you have chosen:

- describe or identify one important instructional issue that may be necessary to address in order for you to successfully teach a student with that disability in the general education setting. The important instructional issues should not be identical for the two disabilities that you have chosen.

Part 2: Instructional Issues Discussion: For each instructional implication you discuss in Part 1 above:

- list or discuss Potential Resources (places, experiences, coursework, persons, etc.) that might be utilized to obtain the information or support needed to deal with those instructional issues, and Potential Strategies (instruction, modifications, adaptations, etc.) that you might employ to address the challenges presented by that instructional issue.

Part 3: Assessment: Discuss some accommodations and modifications that can be made when assessing the learning of students with these particular disabilities.

The essay should be written in APA 6th edition style, be approximately 2,500 words in length, and contain at least 10 current (within the last 10 years, between 2010 and 2019) peer-reviewed journal articles.
