3. ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS

It is expected that any student enrolled in an EDST course with the School of Education will make a commitment to their learning and attend all classes in full where content is delivered in a face-to-face mode, whether on-campus or on-line, except in certain circumstances where absence is due to illness, misadventure, unforeseen circumstances beyond the student's control, or otherwise indicated.

A minimum attendance requirement of 80% is required for each course. In certain circumstances, a student may miss up to 20% of a course without formal application and up to 33% of a course with formal documentation (sent via email to course convenor) providing all the requirements detailed below are met.

Students not meeting the attendance requirements outlined above will be awarded an Unsatisfactory Fail (UF) for that course regardless of their performance in the assessment tasks or other requirements for the course.

4. COURSE DETAILS

Course Name	Issues in Higher Education
Credit Points	6 units of credit (6 UOC)
Workload	150 hours incorporating weekly individual and group online learning activities, reading, and assignment preparation.
Schedule	Weekly on-line seminars on Mondays from 5.00 to 7.00pm beginning Monday of Week 1 (18 February 2019) Http://classutil.unsw.edu.au/EDST_T1.html#EDST

Summary of Course

This course will engage you in key debates related to significant contemporary issues in research, policy and practice in HE. Specifically in the areas of: (a) the organisation, governance and management of HE; (b) leadership in HE; (c) students and learning in HE; (d) educational design for HE; (e) teachers and teaching in HE; (f) the structure and development of academic work; (g) research; and (h) the assurance of quality in higher education.

THE MAIN WAYS IN WHICH THE COURSE HAS CHANGED SINCE LAST TIME AS A RESULT OF STUDENT FEEDBACK:

The main ways in which the course has changed since last time as a result of student feedback are:

1. the course has been re-designed so that it can be completed fully on-line
2. readings associated with weekly learning activities have been updated
3. requirements of Assessment Task 2 have been made clearer
4. assessment rubrics to support personal and peer review of responses to assessment tasks 1 and 2 have been revised.

Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs)

At the end of this course you should have developed a demonstrable capacity to:

Outcome	Assessment Task
1 Identify current issues relating to and impacting on higher education	1,2
2 Evaluate and apply theoretical and conceptual models to analyse current challenges in higher education	1,2
3 Develop strategies to address current issues in an identified higher education context	2

Program Learning Outcomes

By the end of your studies in the MEd program you should be able to:

Outcome	Assessment Task
1 Advanced disciplinary knowledge and practices Demonstrate an advanced understanding of the field of education as it relates to higher education, and the ability to synthesize and apply related disciplinary principles and practices to new or complex environments.	1,2
2 Research-based learning Demonstrate an in-depth understanding of research-based learning and the ability to plan, analyse, present implement and evaluate complex activities that contribute to advanced professional practice and/or intellectual scholarship in education.	1,2
3 Cognitive skills and critical thinking Demonstrate advanced critical thinking and problem solving skills	1,2

5. RATIONALE FOR THE INCLUSION OF CONTENT AND TEACHING APPROACH

The national and international context for Higher Education is constantly changing. Increasing demand for universities to support:

- the international community to address global challenges;
- nations and local communities to address their local development needs; and
- global/local efforts to ensure all peoples enjoy the benefits of peace, freedom and social justice, coupled with rapid population growth, changing demographics and technology, has resulted in significant and fundamental questions being asked about the appropriateness of all aspects of traditional HE policy and practice.

This course is specifically designed to enable you:

- to identify, within defined areas of research, policy and practice in HE, significant contemporary issues in need of resolution, and in the case one chosen issue
- to explore how this issue might be addressed.

Thus, each week the course will introduce you to a different area of HE research, policy and practice, providing you with opportunities to develop a broad understanding of the area, and of some of the many challenges / issues faced by the sector, in this area.

6. TEACHING STRATEGIES

To engage you in the process of exploring some of the contemporary issues facing HE today, the course employs 10 weekly online learning modules that require you to read, collate, analyse, reflect, and evaluate current research, policy and practice in HE.

In each module you will be scaffolded and supported in your work by:

- designated readings
- a weekly two-hour online seminar, and
- a structured learning activity.

Two assessment tasks will provide you with opportunities to synthesise and demonstrate your developing understanding of the nature of the issues facing HE in the areas of research, policy and practice considered.

The course makes use of Moodle as the learning management system and Zoom as the online seminar tool.

There will be opportunities for you to work independently, to collaborate with peers, and to give and receive feedback on your own and others' work in responding to learning activities and assessment tasks.

8. READINGS

Prescribed Text

There is NO prescribed text for this course.

Prescribed Readings

A list of the prescribed readings for each weekly work module can be found in the Course Information section of the course's Moodle site.

Readings can be accessed from the library using the Leganto link in the Course Information section of the course's Moodle site. Alternatively, readings relevant to each week can be downloaded directly from the appropriate week in Moodle.

Information concerning higher education can be identified and accessed from a wide variety of sources including the UNSW Library and its website:

<http://info.library.unsw.edu.au/web/services/services.html>

In addition, a number of on-line search engines such as Google Scholar, and websites such as those associated with the NTEU, Universities Australia, the Go8, or Universitas 21 can assist you to locate and access relevant information.

9. ASSESSMENT

Assessment tasks in this course are designed to scaffold your learning and provide you with opportunities to synthesise and demonstrate:

- your understanding of the nature of the issues facing HE in the areas of research, policy and practice considered, and
- your capacity to develop, articulate and justify a plan for addressing one of these issues.

Details of Assessment Tasks

Assessment Task 1 (40% weighting) (Maximum 3000 words or equivalent) (CLO's 1 and 2)

Submission Dates:

- Weekly Submissions: 5pm each Sunday from 24 Feb to 28 Apr 2019
- FINAL Submission Date: 5pm Sunday 28 Apr 2019

Each week you will be expected to contribute, via the course's Moodle site, to a Learning Activity that relates to that week's topic(s) of interest. Over time, your contributions to these activities will accumulate and collectively comprise your e.portfolio of significant contemporary issues in HE.

Assessment Task 2 (60% weighting) (Maximum 3000 words or equivalent) (CLO's 1, 2 and 3)

Submission Dates:

- Draft for Peer Review: 05.00pm on Friday 19 April 2019
- FINAL Submission Date: 5pm on Sunday 28 April 2019

(Assessment Task 2 builds on the work you do in responding to one of the Learning Activities comprising Assessment Task 1)

Taking into account the local, national and international context for higher education, and with appropriate scholarly justification:

- Identify a significant contemporary issue in HE that you believe needs to be addressed
- articulate a strategy and plan to address this issue.

Assessment Schedule

Assessment Component	Description	Length	Weight	CLOs Assessed	PLOs Assessed	Due Date
Task 1	e.Portfolio of Weekly Learning Activities	3000 words or equivalent	40 %	1, 2	1, 2, 3	By 5pm each Sunday from 24 Feb to 28 Apr 2019
Task 2	Essay or Equivalent	3000 words or equivalent	60 %	1, 2, 3	1, 2, 3	By 5pm Sunday 28 Apr 2019

Assessment Criteria, Grading and Feedback

In assessing your work two questions will be considered:

1. Have you fulfilled ALL of the requirements of the assessment task?
2. How well have you demonstrated your achievement of the learning outcomes (including the graduate capabilities or Program Learning Outcomes) associated with the task?

Performance against each assessment criterion will be determined in accord with the Assessment Rubric associated with each task. These can be found in the Course Information section of the course's Moodle site.

Formative feedback on your / your group's response to each week's Learning Activity will be provided via Moodle.

Summative feedback on each assessment task (your e.Portfolio of responses to weekly learning activities and your essay) will be provided on a designated Feedback Sheet (copies of each of these Feedback Sheets are provided below).

Feedback on each assessment task will be provided in accord with the schedule below.

Assessment Task	Feedback Mechanism	Feedback Date
Weekly contributions to your e.Portfolio	Written collective feedback via Moodle	Each week
e.Portfolio	Written individual feedback – on Assessment Task 1 Feedback Sheet	Within 10 business days of final submission
Essay or Equivalent	Written individual feedback – on Assessment Task 2 Feedback Sheet	Within 10 business days of submission

Submission of Assessment Tasks

Assessment Task 1 - Your opportunity to modify or update your e.Portfolio in Moodle will close at 5pm on Sunday 28 April 2019.

Assessment Task 2 - Your essay (or equivalent) should be submitted online via Turnitin in the Course's Moodle Site AND in the form of a ".doc" or ".docx" file via email to: stephen.marshall@unsw.edu.au by 5pm on Sunday 28 April 2019.

You no longer need to use a cover sheet on your assessment tasks. However you are expected to put your name and student number on every page of your submissions (Assessment Task 2 only).

You are also required to keep all drafts, original data and other evidence of the authenticity of the work for at least one year after examination. If an assessment is mislaid the student is responsible for providing a further copy.

Turnitin Submission

If you encounter a problem when attempting to submit your assignment through Turnitin, please telephone External Support on 9385 3331 or email them on externalteltsupport@unsw.edu.au. Support hours are 8:00am – 10:00pm on weekdays and 9:00am – 5:00pm on weekends (365 days a year).

If you are unable to submit your assignment due to a fault with Turnitin you may apply for an extension, but you must retain your ticket number from External Support (along with any other relevant documents) to include as evidence to support your extension application.

If you email External Support you will automatically receive a ticket number, but if you telephone you will need to specifically ask for one. Turnitin also provides updates on their system status on Twitter.

Late Assessment Penalties

An assessed task is deemed late if it is submitted after the specified time and date as set out in the course Learning Management System (LMS).

The late penalty is the loss of 5% of the total possible marks for the task for each day or part thereof the work is late. Lateness will include weekends and public holidays. This does not apply to a task that is assessed but no mark is awarded.

Work submitted fourteen (14) days after the due date will be marked and feedback provided but no mark will be recorded. If the work would have received a pass mark but for the lateness and the work is a compulsory course component, a student will be deemed to have met that requirement. This does not apply to a task that is assessed but no mark is awarded.

Work submitted twenty-one (21) days after the due date will not be accepted for marking or feedback and will receive no mark or grade. If the assessment task is a compulsory component of the course a student will automatically fail the course.

Special Consideration Applications

You can apply for special consideration when illness or other circumstances interfere with your assessment performance.

Sickness, misadventure or other circumstances beyond your control may:

- Prevent you from completing a course requirement,
- Keep you from attending an assessable activity,
- Stop you submitting assessable work for a course,
- Significantly affect your performance in assessable work, be it a formal end-of-semester examination, a class test, a laboratory test, a seminar presentation or any other form of assessment.

For further details in relation to Special Consideration including "When to Apply", "How to Apply" and "Supporting Documentation" please refer to the Special Consideration webstie:

<https://student.unsw.edu.au/special-consideration>

Academic Honesty and Plagiarism

Plagiarism is using the words or ideas of others and presenting them as your own. It can take many forms, from deliberate cheating to accidentally copying from a source without acknowledgement.

UNSW groups plagiarism into the following categories:

Copying: using the same or very similar words to the original text or idea without acknowledging the source or using quotation marks. This also applies to images, art and design projects, as well as presentations where someone presents another's ideas or words without credit.

Inappropriate paraphrasing: changing a few words and phrases while mostly retaining the original structure and information without acknowledgement. This also applies in presentations where someone paraphrases another's ideas or words without credit. It also applies to piecing together quotes and paraphrases into a new whole, without referencing and a student's own analysis to bring the material together.

Collusion: working with others but passing off the work as a person's individual work. Collusion also includes providing your work to another student before the due date, or for the purpose of them plagiarising at any time, paying another person to perform an academic task, stealing or acquiring another person's academic work and copying it, offering to complete another person's work or seeking payment for completing academic work.

Inappropriate citation: Citing sources which have not been read, without acknowledging the "secondary" source from which knowledge of them has been obtained.

Duplication ("self-plagiarism"): submitting your own work, in whole or in part, where it has previously been prepared or submitted for another assessment or course at UNSW or another university.

Correct referencing practices:

- Paraphrasing, summarising, essay writing and time management
- Appropriate use of and attribution for a range of materials including text, images, formulae and concepts.

Individual assistance is available on request from The Learning Centre (<http://www.lc.unsw.edu.au/>). Students are also reminded that careful time management is an important part of study and one of the identified causes of plagiarism is poor time management. Students should allow sufficient time for research, drafting and proper referencing of sources in preparing all assessment items.

UNSW Library also has the ELISE tool available to assist you with your study at UNSW. ELISE is designed to introduce new students to studying at UNSW but it can also be a great refresher during your study.

Completing the ELISE tutorial and quiz will enable you to:

- analyse topics, plan responses and organise research for academic writing and other assessment tasks
- effectively and efficiently find appropriate information sources and evaluate relevance to your needs
- use and manage information effectively to accomplish a specific purpose
- better manage your time
- understand your rights and responsibilities as a student at UNSW
- be aware of plagiarism, copyright, UNSW Student Code of Conduct and Acceptable Use of UNSW ICT Resources Policy
- be aware of the standards of behaviour expected of everyone in the UNSW community
- locate services and information about UNSW and UNSW Library

Some of these areas will be familiar to you, others will be new. Gaining a solid understanding of all the related aspects of ELISE will help you make the most of your studies at UNSW.

10. RESOURCES

Moodle Course

EDST 5126 Issues in Higher Education has an on-line presence within Moodle where you can find:

1. information concerning the structure and processes of the course (including further information about assessment tasks)
2. independent and/or group learning activities for each of the topics included in the Course Schedule
3. tools that you can use for independent research, collaboration, and sharing of information
4. links to access readings and the course's online face-to-face seminars.

You should ensure that you are a regular visitor to and user of this site as it will be the principal means by which the Course Convenor will communicate information and provide feedback to you and your colleagues.

Online Seminars

The online seminars associated with the course are COMPULSORY.

The seminars will be conducted via ZOOM.

Login details for each online seminar can be found in the relevant weekly section in Moodle. Simply click on the link. If you have difficulty, cut and paste the URL into your web browser and enter the information required.

These online seminars will begin at 5.00 pm each Monday evening.

If you intend to participate you should LOGIN FROM 4.55 – 5.00pm.

Login after 5.10 pm will be blocked to prevent disruption to the class.

Seminars will run as long as needed, but will always conclude by 7.00pm.
