Summary of Course

This course is designed to increase a student's pedagogical content knowledge for drama teaching in secondary schools. It acknowledges the practical, reflexive, reflective and theoretical aspects of drama pedagogy through an in depth study of the Drama 7-10 Syllabus and the Drama Stage 6 Syllabus. The key elements of pedagogy and drama content knowledge, especially the core content of improvisation and play-building, are examined and developed. Students will critically address how these elements can then be combined into effective classroom practice through planning and programming for addressing the requirements and philosophy of these NSW Drama syllabuses as a priority for teaching in NSW, as well as the Australian Curriculum: The Arts to gain a national perspective.

The main ways in which the course has changed since last time as a result of student feedback

- No changes made as student feedback was very positive.

Assessment: Please note that all students must pass all assignments to pass the course, and they must pass the course to go on placement for PE 1.

Attendance: Students are expected to give priority to university study commitments. Unless specific and formal permission has been granted, attendance at less than 80% of classes in a course may result in failure.

Student Learning Outcomes

Outcome		Assessment/s
1	Identify foundational aspects and structure of the NSW Board of Studies Drama Syllabus and the depth of subject knowledge required to implement the syllabus	1a, 1b, 2
2	Evaluate how student characteristics affect learning and evaluate implications for teaching students with different characteristics and from diverse backgrounds	2
3	Use a range of strategies to plan and teach effective lessons to engage all students, address relevant syllabus outcomes and ensure a safe learning environment	1a, 2, 3
4	Select appropriate resources, including ICT, to engage students and expand learning opportunities	1a, 1b, 2, 3
5	Design and evaluate formative assessment strategies and use assessment information to improve learning	1a, 1b, 2
6	Practice the ethical and professional values expected of teachers	2, 3

4. RATIONALE FOR THE INCLUSION OF CONTENT AND TEACHING APPROACH

This subject aims to develop each student's ability to teach Drama effectively to secondary school students with an emphasis on the NSW Drama curriculum. During the course, students will develop their knowledge of the New South Wales syllabus documents for stages 4, 5 and 6. Lectures, tutorials and assignments will explore current practices in drama teaching and develop in students, the skills and knowledge required to teach drama effectively to a variety of students. Teaching in this course will be both theoretical and experiential. Emphasis will be given to viewing Drama as an art form with a discrete body of knowledge including conventions, history, skills and methods of working and the role and value of Drama in the curriculum and the community.

Student centered activities will form the basis of the course. These activities will draw on the prior knowledge of the students and will allow them to engage in relevant and challenging experiences that mirror those they will be expected to design for the secondary students they will later teach.

5. TEACHING STRATEGIES

- Pair, small-group and large-group cooperative learning experiences, to understand the importance of collaboration in an educational drama context and to demonstrate the use of group structures as appropriate to address teaching and learning goals
- Explicit teaching, including lectures, to demonstrate different approaches to learning, the mandatory components of the drama curriculum and the use of a range of teaching strategies to foster interest and support learning
- A range of drama specific workshops which model experiential learning through enactment when teaching theoretical components of the course
- Collaborative projects which mirror those in the Drama Syllabus, Year 7-10 and in the Stage 6 Drama Syllabus, for example play-building in Years 7-10 and the Group Presentation in the HSC Course
- Viewing student samples of work and simulated marking experience especially of Year 9 Play-building, Year 10 dramatic form and Year 12 HSC Projects
- Simulations and 'teacher-in-role' experiences
- Keeping a logbook of class experiences mirroring a drama logbook in stage 4, 5 and 6

- Structured occasions for reflections on learning, encouraging critical reflection and improved teaching practice. Also, these allow students opportunities to demonstrate their capacity to communicate and liaise with the diverse members of an education community, and to demonstrate their knowledge and understanding of method content
- Extensive opportunities for whole group and small group dialogue and discussion, allowing students to demonstrate their capacity to communicate and liaise with the diverse members of an education community, and show knowledge and understanding of method content
- Online learning from readings on the Moodle website
- Peer teaching in a simulated classroom setting

Assessment 1a

Present a review of your professional reading from the 2 Drama textbooks, Living Drama, a text book for school students and Young at Art, Classroom play-building in practice, a resource book for teachers, by answering the following question:

“What are the key features of the play-building process outlined in each text? What specific aspects did you find helpful in light of the performance task and workshop you are planning?”

You should focus on at least 3 of the following;

- What is an acceptable process of devising play-building?
- How can you scaffold experiences differently for beginners or experienced play builders?
- How can you structure play-building to respect and understand the social, ethnic, cultural and religious backgrounds of students (especially Indigenous) and how these factors may affect learning
- What are the advantages of incorporating aspects of various dramatic forms and styles in play-building?
- How can the elements of drama be incorporated into play-building?
- How can ICT be incorporated into Play-building?
- Do activities take into account diverse social, cultural and religious backgrounds or special needs of students or can they be adjusted to do so?
- How can play-building enhance literacy?
- What text books are recommended by Drama NSW or by other professional organisations or schools

Assessment criteria for the review

Assessment criteria as per the Graduate Teacher Standards outlined earlier and

- Perceptive understanding of the central concepts and pedagogies of play-building
- Judicious choice of research based knowledge and examples selected for discussion
- Perceptive evaluation of the texts as appropriate and engaging resources/materials to support students' learning.
- Sophisticated analysis and critical evaluation
- Understanding of how theoretical material in the books can be applied to a teacher's own practice
- Clarity, flair and accuracy of expression
- Comprehensive knowledge of the NSW Years 7-10 Drama Curriculum

Assessment 1b

Part 1 Practical Component – Play-building Performance

Imagine you are a Theatre in Education company. Select an appropriate youth issue to be explored through drama. Devise and perform a piece of play-building to your peers on the chosen topic, which is appropriate for a class of Year 9 or 10 mixed ability students of diverse back-grounds. Incorporate a number of dramatic devices to enhance the drama. Record the process in your logbook including photos. Attach a photo of your group with each student's name. Duration: 6 – 7 minutes. You will be assessed individually within your group.

Part 2 Practical Component - Workshop and Reflection

Workshop - Devise and conduct a workshop with the class following your performance to enhance and stimulate learning of the chosen topic. Your group should adopt the role of schoolteachers who prepare a follow up workshop after the performance. The focus is on the teachers' strategies, actions, questions etc. (Duration: 20 minutes).

Take into account material covered in your combined method lectures.

Reflection - The workshop should be followed by a brief critical reflection of the suitability of the chosen topic, the suitability of the methodology chosen for the presentation, and the content and success of the workshop activity as a learning medium for young people. (3 minutes)

Assessment Criteria for the practical component;

- Use varied research creatively, to develop play-building on a youth related issue
- Collaborate and use positive group strategies as essential drama pedagogies creating and sustaining dynamic characters/roles & managing the elements of drama
- Perform dynamic, original play-building using a range of drama techniques
- Use sophisticated acting/performance techniques and expressive skills In play-building
- Conduct a dynamic Drama workshop which enhances learning of the chosen topic
- Devise appropriate teaching and questioning strategies in a drama workshop
- Record and critically reflect on the process, using a logbook as an integral tool of drama
- Complete the reflection/evaluation pro forma in the logbook
- Align with the Graduate Teacher Standards as per the Course Outline

Part 3 Written Component – Log Book and Reflection Pro forma

Present your logbook including all process work and information on devising the play-building and workshop with conclusions. Complete the Reflection/Evaluation Pro forma

Features to include in the log;

- * Details of key devising strategies, improvisations undertaken, research incorporated
- * Dramatic forms, performance styles and dramatic devices used
- * Reflections on collaboration, group dynamics, problems encountered, problem-solving
- * A rationale for the workshop and aspects of the syllabus addressed
- * A detailed lesson plan with intended outcomes, time allocated and roles

Assessment Criteria for the written component;

- * Concise, insightful critical reflections of the process using clear, accurate expression
- * Complete the reflection/evaluation pro forma

5. What dramatic techniques enhanced the piece? Which were discarded and why?
6. What transitions were used? Why?
7. Photocopy a significant page from your logbook and attach it. Explain its significance.
8. What was the rationale behind your workshop?
9. What specific ideas or activities did you adapt from Young at Art or other professional reading?
10. Having devised and performed in the play-building and run the workshop, what implications can you see for the teaching of a unit of play-building in Stage 5?

Assessment 2

You will be allocated a text from either Australian Drama or Studies in Drama and Theatre.

Devise 4 one-hour lessons, incorporating the 3 drama practices – making, performing, critically studying for your allocated text (4 workshops in total). The 4 lessons would form a part of a wider unit of 14 lessons and may be from any point in the unit. Assume the class is of mixed ability and from diverse backgrounds.

Include a worksheet, ICT activity, assessment task, differentiation and background research.

Provide detailed lesson plans with a clearly stated aim and projected outcomes for each lesson and the unit as a whole. Draw on your knowledge of Combined Method Lectures and the Professional Experience Lectures throughout the task.

You must include:

- your name, student number and a current phone number on the cover sheet
- a paragraph clearly outlining the context and position of the lessons in the unit
- a unit overview paragraph (showing how the lessons fulfil the appropriate rubric)
- a rationale paragraph in which you:
 - justify your choices/strategies by reference to readings, research and material from lectures
 - demonstrate how you provide for diverse learning approaches and abilities
 - detail students' prior knowledge to begin this unit and how you determined it
- background research on the topic and evidence of reading the text
- at least one worksheet (beyond simple questions) to be distributed to the class
- an activity or worksheet which may be connected to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students and 1 other of; students with Special Education Needs; NESB students; students with Challenging Behaviours
- all lessons should be differentiated and one lesson that uses ICT as its core.
- an assessment task with outcomes, criteria and marking guidelines
- any resources required for the lessons and bibliography of references and sources used.

Assessment Criteria for the written component

- * design effective lesson sequences suitable for a variety of HSC students
- * plan a logical, sequential, cohesive unit of work
- * write with clarity and accuracy of written expression in sufficient detail to show understanding of each activity
- * show evidence of critical reflection and evaluation of the allocated text
- * use a variety of drama pedagogies appropriate to the material to be delivered
- * show knowledge of the NSW HSC Drama Stage 6 syllabus and curriculum documents

Part 2 - Written Component - HSC DRAMA - Microteaching Lesson Plan

- * Write a rationale discussing the lesson's context and position in the unit. Write a detailed plan for the microteaching lesson. Hand this in on the day.

Assignment 3 – Practical Component – HSC Drama - Microteaching Experience

- * Teach a sequence from one lesson you have devised to your peers. There must be an aspect of literacy or numeracy evident in the sequence. It should mirror a real class as much as possible. Include a 1 minute introduction, 10 minutes teaching and 4 minutes feedback by the lecturer and your peers.

Microteaching is the planning, presentation and evaluation of a lesson in a shortened period of time - a 'mini-lesson'. It is an essential competency that must be reached before student teachers are permitted to start their Teaching Experience. An important aspect of microteaching is observing other student teachers and engaging in peer review.

Assessment for Microteaching GRADE - Satisfactory or Unsatisfactory

To be graded as satisfactory, students must satisfy ALL three of the following categories during the presentation: Professional Knowledge; Professional Practice; Professional Commitment. Any student whose first microteaching lesson is judged unsatisfactory will be given a further opportunity (1 only) to gain a satisfactory grade. If a student is assessed as unsatisfactory in microteaching s/he will automatically fail method overall.

DRAMA METHOD SEMESTER 1
MICROTEACHING PRESENTATION
HURDLE REQUIREMENT

MICROTEACHING (Assessment 3)

Microteaching is the planning, presentation and evaluation of a lesson over a shortened period of time (a 10 minute mini-lesson). It is a critical aspect of method as it provides students with the opportunity to demonstrate key competencies that must be achieved before student teachers are permitted to undertake Professional Experience 1, at the same time observing other student teachers and engaging in peer review. It is recommended that students read widely on effective classroom strategies and practise aspects of their mini-lesson with a small group of peers prior to assessment.

The assessment process will consist of the following two components:

1. A detailed lesson plan using the prescribed template, including a statement of expected learning outcomes
2. A 10 minute mini-lesson

Initial Lesson Plan: All students must submit to the method lecturer their proposed lesson plan at least one week prior to the presentation. This will be returned with comments on the suitability of the proposal.

Microteaching: This will be assessed according to the attached criteria, and will be graded as Satisfactory or Unsatisfactory. Any student whose first microteaching episode is judged as unsatisfactory will be given a further (one only) opportunity to gain a satisfactory grade.

NOTE: If a student is assessed as unsatisfactory in microteaching s/he will automatically fail Method 1 overall, and not be permitted to undertake Professional Experience or any further method work in that teaching area until the key concerns have been resolved.
