Summary of Course

This course is designed to increase a student's pedagogical content knowledge for History teaching. The key elements of pedagogy and History content knowledge are examined and developed. Students will critically address how these elements can then be combined into effective classroom practice for addressing the requirements and philosophy of the NSW History syllabuses. The main focus in Semester 1 is on History in Stages 4 and 5 and the links to the K-6 curriculum.

Aims of the Course

This course aims to:

- increase a student's pedagogical content knowledge for History teaching
- develop a student's understanding of what comprises effective classroom practice.

The main ways in which the course has changed since last time as a result of student feedback:

A lecture on Indigenous Perspectives in History Education has been added to strengthen that aspect of the course. Two new, school-based staff members have been added to the team.

Important Information

Assessment: Please note that all students must pass all assignments to pass the course, and they must pass the course to go on placement for PE 1.

Attendance: Students are expected to give priority to university study commitments. Unless specific and formal permission has been granted, failure to attend 80% of classes in a course may result in failure.

4. RATIONALE FOR THE INCLUSION OF CONTENT AND TEACHING APPROACH

This subject aims to develop in each student the ability to effectively teach History to secondary school students according to the philosophy and requirements of the NSW History Syllabus documents. During the course students will develop their knowledge of New South Wales syllabus documents.

Lectures, tutorials and assignments will cover a variety of approaches to teaching and learning in the History classroom. Emphasis will be given to the relationship between History, literacy and numeracy and the role and value of History in the curriculum and the community.

Student-centred activities will form the basis of the course. These activities will draw on the prior knowledge of the students and will allow them to engage in relevant and challenging experiences that mirror those they will be expected to design for the secondary students they will later teach.

5. TEACHING STRATEGIES

- Explicit teaching, including lectures, to demonstrate an understanding of students' different approaches to learning and the use of a range of teaching strategies to foster interest and support learning.
- Small group cooperative learning to understand the importance of teamwork in an educational context and to demonstrate the use of group structures as appropriate to address teaching and learning goals.
- Extensive opportunities for whole group and small group dialogue and discussion, allowing students the opportunity to demonstrate their capacity to communicate and liaise with the diverse members of an education community, and to demonstrate their knowledge and understanding of method content.
- Structured occasions for reflection on learning to allow students to reflect critically on and improve teaching practice.
- Online learning from readings on the Moodle website.
- Online discussions.
- Peer teaching in a simulated classroom setting.

These activities will occur in a classroom climate that is supportive and inclusive of all learners.

Assessment Details

Task details 1a and 1b

1a. You are to design a detailed 60 minute lesson plan for a stage 4 or 5 History Class. You will use this lesson as the basis of your microteaching presentation (see below).

Your plan should include any prior knowledge the students would need to enable them to help move towards the achievement of the outcomes for that lesson. Relevant syllabus outcomes and content statements for the lesson must be written out in full. Include with your detailed plan any handouts you would be providing to the students.

(The lesson plan is a standard format that will be explained and investigated during tutorials. You will receive a template for the lesson outline).

Write a lesson rationale in which you refer to readings that you have studied during the course and that are relevant to your lesson and from any other research articles justifying the teaching and learning activities you have chosen to deliver in your microteaching presentation. Your reading and research should be correctly referenced. It is expected that this will be about 500 words.

You MUST highlight the TEN minutes of the lesson you will be presenting as your microteaching. These ten minutes should include an activity that will enhance student literacy or numeracy skills.

Include in your rationale a description of the backgrounds, needs and abilities of the students to whom this lesson would be given. You should also comment on how the material chosen for the lesson would complement classroom management strategies.

You should submit an electronic copy of this assignment through Moodle by 5pm on the due date.

Microteaching presentation

Students should choose a 10 minute segment from the 60 minute lesson plan to present to their peer group.

At some stage in your microteaching lesson, and in its subsequent presentation, you must demonstrate the use of a literacy or numeracy strategy, relevant to the subject content and the needs and abilities of the students you have identified in your rationale.

Evaluation of microteaching

1b. You must also provide a brief written evaluation of your microteaching in the week after you have presented your lesson. It should provide reflection on what you thought were the strengths and weaknesses of your presentation and what you have learned for future teaching. This is not a formal piece of writing, and the emphasis should be on reflection. It should be submitted via Moodle the week following your microteaching presentation.

Task 2 – Stage 4 or Stage 5 Unit of Work and Lesson Plans

This task requires students to develop a unit of work for a Stage 4 or Stage 5 class (28 – 30 students) of mixed ability, of 10-12 lessons of 40 minutes each.

There are TWO parts to the assessment task.

Part A: Unit of work outline consisting of 10 -12 lessons

Include a cover sheet with the following details:

- Year group involved
- Topic from the syllabus, Overview or Depth Study
- Knowledge, skills and attitude objectives from the syllabus
- Syllabus outcomes for the topic
- Skills and concepts from the syllabus.

For each lesson in the unit provide brief details as set out in the table below. (Please use 'landscape' layout.)

	Key inquiry Question / Content	Outcomes	Teaching / Learning Strategies	Activities	Resources	Assessment Formative & Summative
Lesson 1	Introductory Lesson...see full lesson plan #1.
Lesson 2
Lesson ...
Lesson 12

Part B: Detailed lesson plans for 5 lessons

(Note that these lessons need only be 'listed' in the outline above...see Lesson 1 above)

- Introductory lesson (Lesson #1)
- A source study lesson
- A group / team / collaborative activity
- A note-making exercise (NBB: Note-making NOT Note-taking)
- An IT lesson (students must learn something about IT in History...use IT to achieve an outcome / learn a skill...not just use Google)

Use the lesson plan 'proforma' as for Microteaching and Professional Experience.

Each lesson plan must include

- Outcomes
- Content
- Sequence of Teaching & Learning Activities / Strategies (with approximate timing)...based on outcomes, skills and concepts
- Details of and a copy of any resource required for these lessons
- A copy of any assessment items
- Demonstration of your awareness of, and means of catering for, students of different backgrounds, abilities and experiences, particularly students of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander background, including literacy and numeracy needs
- IT pedagogical approaches.

Include an annotated list of all references, resources or teaching aids to be used.

Ensure that you understand what the term 'annotated' means.

HURDLE REQUIREMENT

MICROTEACHING

Microteaching is the planning, presentation and evaluation of a lesson over a shortened period of time (a 10 minute mini-lesson). It is a critical aspect of method as it provides students with the opportunity to demonstrate key competencies that must be achieved before student teachers are permitted to undertake Professional Experience 1, at the same time observing other student teachers and engaging in peer review. It is recommended that students read widely on effective classroom strategies and practise aspects of their mini-lesson with a small group of peers prior to assessment.

The assessment process will consist of the following two components:

1. A detailed lesson plan using the prescribed template, including a statement of expected learning outcomes (See assessment 1)
2. A 10 minute mini-lesson.

1. Initial Lesson Plan: All students must submit their proposed lesson plan as Assessment task 1a on Thursday 24 March. The feedback will be designed to help facilitate a successful microteaching experience.

Notes

1. Component TWO: Microteaching will not proceed unless Component ONE: Lesson Plan is satisfactorily completed.

2. Micro-teaching: This will be assessed according to the attached criteria, and will be graded as Satisfactory or Unsatisfactory. Any student whose first microteaching episode is judged as unsatisfactory will be given a further (one only) opportunity to gain a satisfactory grade.

NOTE: A student who is assessed as unsatisfactory in microteaching will automatically fail Method 1 overall, and not be permitted to undertake Professional Experience or any further method work in that teaching area until the key concerns have been resolved.
