“A self-transforming school achieves or is well on its way to achieving significant, systematic and sustained change that secures success for all of its students regardless of the setting” (Caldwell & Spinks, 2005).

This workshop allows for three case studies of self-transformational schools. Principals will discuss their context, their educational philosophy and the way they lead change.

PRESENTERS:

- Jenny Allum - Head, SCEGGS Darlinghurst
- Brother David Hall - Principal, Marcellin College Randwick
